When looking for a therapist, you should ask the following questions:

1. Where did you get your training?
2. What approach do you use? Vodder, Foeldi, Casley-Smith etc.
3. How many hours of training have you had? (120 to 160 hrs. or more is good)
4. Are you an OT., PT., MT. ? Where did you get your degree?
5. How long have you been doing CDT/MLD?
6. What certification do you have?
7. How many times a week will I have treatment and for what length of time?
8. How long will my consultation be?
9. Will there be a therapist on call at all times?
10. Is there a doctor, APRN, or nurse connected with the facility? How often will I be seen by them?
